

1. Message from the President

Carole Chambers announces the new-look ISOPP website and thanks Felice Musicco and the Publications Committee members for their work in facilitating the smooth transition from old to new.

2. Editorial

3. Introducing the Education Committee Co-Chairs Secretariat members – Lynne Nakashima and Franca Goffredo

Lynne - My name is Lynne Nakashima and I am one of the co-chairs of the Education Committee. I graduated from the University of BC in 1988 and then went on to receive my Pharm.D. from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (USA) in 1990....

Franca - Hi, my name is Franca Goffredo. I'm currently responsible for the organisation of the Scientific Programme of ISOPP symposium to be held in Prague in 2010. Actually It is not my first experience in this job, as I was co-chair of the organisation of the IX ISOPP Symposium in Torino, Italy in 2004 ...

4. Call for Abstracts for ISOPP.

5. Upcoming local meetings – Australia, UK and Canada

6. How to apply for research grants

7. South African Society of Oncology Pharmacists launch a website and newsletter.

8. Report on the 2009 BMT Tandem meeting Florida USA – Ruth Chieng

The 2009 BMT Tandem Meetings was held in Feb 11-15 at the Tampa Convention Center in Tampa, Florida – home to Super Bowl XLIII. The meetings are jointly run by ASBMT (American Society for Blood and Marrow Transplantation) and CIBMTR (Center for International Blood and Marrow Transplant Research) and...

9. Welcome to new members.

Seventeen countries are represented.

10. Taiwan Society of Health-System Pharmacists are updating their Safe-handling Guidelines. ISOPP Standards Committee member was on hand to assist.

To access the Newsletter in full, log onto the ISOPP website as a member. If you are not a member, why not join? See www.isopp.com for details

