

1. Message from the President

Carole Chambers reminds members the elections for the Secretariat will be held soon. Half of the current Secretariat positions will be vacated. Carole asks members to consider stepping forward when the nomination call comes.

2. Editorial

3. Noticeboard

Do you have what it takes to be an FISOPP?

Availability of travel grants

Helen McKinnon Award submissions are now open

HOPA Award of Excellence presented to ISOPP Ex-President Barry Goldspiel

President Carole Chambers closes the Australasian ISOPP symposium 2009

4. Report on MASCC 2009 Rome – Alex Chan

As a joint meeting of Multinational Association of Supportive Care in Cancer (MASCC) and the International Society of Oral Oncology (ISOO), this year's meeting took place in Rome from June 24th to 27th.

5. ISOPP Achievement Awards

6. Report on ASCO 45th annual meeting 2009 – Vivianne Shih

This was my third ASCO annual meeting. Each time, the meeting never fails to leave an impression. However, this year was special to me as I was at ASCO held in Orlando, Florida to present my research ...

7. ISOPP XII 2010 Call for Abstracts.

8. Report HOPA 2009 – Barry Goldspiel

The fifth annual Hematology/Oncology Pharmacy Association (HOPA) conference was held in Miami, Florida USA from June 17-20, 2009. Attendance topped 725 including 551 meeting attendees (with 55 from outside the US) and 177 industry representatives...

9. Report Australasian ISOPP – Diana Booth

The sixth Australasian ISOPP symposium was held in Melbourne, Australia from August 28th – 30th. This was the third such meeting I have attended, so I can now claim to have been at half of them. It was a truly Australasian meeting with speakers from six countries ...

*To access the Newsletter in full, log onto the ISOPP website as a member.
If you are not a member, why not join? See www.isopp.com for details*

XII. ISOPP
PRAGUE
WWW.ISOPP2010.COM
12th SYMPOSIUM OF THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY OF ONCOLOGY PHARMACY PRACTITIONERS
MAY 5–8, 2010 | CLARION CONGRESS HOTEL PRAGUE | CZECH REPUBLIC